

Refusal of Power, Refusal of Responsibility

OG Discussion Questions

1. Are there any areas of life that intimidate you? Do you go through it on your own? Do you realize you need God's help to see it through? What is God authorizing you to do?
2. Moses had his brother Aaron. Who can you identify to assist you in accomplishing these objectives? How do you go about seeking help? Who is God identifying?
3. How is your foundation? How are you at understanding the fundamentals of our faith? Do you believe these fundamentals shape your thoughts, values and convictions?
4. Perhaps you can recall first hand experiences that illustrate the orchestrated wonders of God. Have you shared them with others in the past? Are there any that you could share in the effort to encourage others?
5. A "burning bush moment" is sometimes described as a time in your personal life when God simultaneously reminds you of your intimacy with Him, identity of who you are and instructions of a specific task. Can you express your "burning bush moment" or a time that was similar?